#CITY ATTACK - At approximately 17:36 Titanium Securitas received a call from a client to inform us of his neighbour that is in distress.
Our Armed Response Officers aswell as our Rapid Response vehicle were dispatched to scene.
On arrival our officers were informed that a robbery has just taken place and the suspects fled the scene on foot.
The victim was tied-up with wire.
Our Armed Response Officers immediately search the area but without any success.
They returned to scene and were informed that the suspects got away with fire arms belonging to the owner.
Our officers again searched the area knowing that the suspect would not have been able to run through the streets with a hunting rifle without being spotted.
They found the hunting rifle hidden inside a wheelie bin. The South African Police Service arrived shortly after and the scene was handed over to them for further investigation.

CITY ATTACK - A man who fought fiercely against house robbers was admitted to a Port Elizabeth hospital with serious injuries early Wednesday morning. The 38-year-old man was allegedly attacked with a panga when four burglars attacked him in his house in the Brymore neighborhood. According to the police, the man's wife (37) was overwhelmed by an unknown man in the bathroom at 02:20 in the morning. He allegedly gained access through the window after the burglar bars were removed. "The woman shouted and her husband, who woke up, became involved in a fight with the suspect," said Col. Priscilla Naidu, police spokesperson. Meanwhile, three more burglars smashed the glass of a sliding door, entered the house and attacked the homeowner with the panga.Naidu says the suspect is that the burglar who entered the house through the bathroom would open the door from the inside for his accomplices, but they broke the sliding door when they heard there was a struggle in the house. Moments later, the four burglars fled with a laptop and two cellphones. According to Naidu, the woman was not injured, but her husband sustained serious injuries to his legs and torso. Bernadette Nel-Naudé, Atlas Security's community development manager, says their officers were called to the home on Wednesday morning by one of their other clients in the area, and later that morning assisted police in their search for the burglars.
