- TIME: Mornig
- CITY: Forest Hill, Durban
- REFERENCE: CA
- SOURCE: Blue Security - Durban

CITY ATTACK - Three armed suspects attacked a Forest Hill homeowner on Thursday morning after taking advantage of the domestic worker's arrival to gain access to the premises. Blue Security responded to a panic alert where the homeowner explained that once his domestic worker arrives, he hands her the keys to a change room and leaves the house open for her. On Thursday morning, it appears the three suspects snuck in as well. They first held the maid at gunpoint and instructed her not to make a sound as they tied her hands with cable and shoved her into the change room. The garage, which has an interleading door to the house, was left open by the homeowner so the domestic worker could go about her work. The three suspects entered the home via this interleading door and confronted the homeowner in the lounge. He noticed one suspect was armed with a knife and another with a gun. The suspect with the knife and the third suspect attacked the client, who fought back. While trying to defend himself, the homeowner called out to his family to press the panic alarm. This was when the suspects fled, taking only the domestic worker's phone. Counselling was arranged for the traumatised helper. The homeowner had injuries to his hands and face. Hillcrest SAPS attended and a case was opened.
