UPDATE FEBRUARY 2022 ATTACKS

21 ATTACK KZN

•DATE: 27/02/2022

•TIME: Unconfirmed

•CITY: Westville, Durban

•REFERENCE: CA

•SOURCE: Blue Security

#CITYATTACK - A family's relaxing afternoon by the pool was horrifically shattered when they became the victims of a home invasion by a gang of four armed men in their Westville home. "The suspects had confronted the family by running at them with guns pointed and then forcing them inside the house," said Blue Security community and media liaison officer, Andreas Mathios. The son and his father were tied up and the rest of the family was ordered to lie down on the floor before the gang located the domestic worker in her quarters and also brought her into the house. "The gang fled, after ransacking the home, taking numerous items including laptops, plasma TVs, a vacuum cleaner, cellphones, jewellery and watches which were removed from the victims' wrists," Mathios said. No shots were fired and no injuries were reported. Westville SAPS attended the scene of the crime.

1 ATTACK GP

- DATE: 01/03/2022
- TIME: Unconfirmed
- CITY: Noordheuwel - Krugersdorp
- REFERENCE: CA
- SOURCE: Krugersdorp News

#CITYATTACK - The victim was alone at home and went out to check why the dogs were barking. He then saw an unknown man at the gate and asked him how he could assist him. Suddenly three other men appeared from nowhere, overpowered him and forced him into the house and into the main bedroom. The victim's hands were tied with an electric cord and the intruders ransacked the house. They stole three TVs, two laptops, jewellery and a white GWM LDV motor vehicle. They also fled the crime scene in a Bronze/Gold Ford Kuga or Eco Sport with unknown registration number. The victim managed to free himself and went to the neighbours to seek help, and the police and Community Policing Forum members were contacted.

2 ATTACK KZN

#FARMATTACK - The victim and his wife had just returned home and were pulling into their garage when an attacker came running up to his vehicle. The attacker pointed the firearm at the farmer and pulled the trigger, fortunately the firearm did not go off. The farmer reversed out of the garage and sped to safety. It is unclear how many attackers were on the property.

3 ATTACK EC

- DATE: 09/03/2022
- TIME: 13:00
- CITY: Camperdown
- REFERENCE: FA
- SOURCE: South Africa Today

#FARMATTACK - An 80-year-old farmer and his employee were at his farm when they accosted by two armed attackers. At gunpoint the attackers instructed the victims to lie down and secured both their hands with tape. They demanded the keys for the main house which the owner complied with. The men proceeded to the main house and stole a laptop, binoculars, rechargeable light, headphones, golf bag and home theatre system. The victims managed to untie themselves and called a neighbour who immediately responded and also alerted the Camperdown police together with other law enforcement agencies. The suspects aged between 27 and 32 were traced and arrested close to the crime scene. They were found in possession of the stolen items and the firearm used in the commission of this crime. The investigation revealed that the pistol was taken during a robbery in Mpumalanga in 2013.

4 ATTACK MP

- DATE: 11/03/2022
- TIME: 13:00
- CITY: Mara - Nelspruit
- REFERENCE: FA
- SOURCE: Reviewonline

#FARMATTACK - Her husband, Hendrik, was still working out on the farm at this time. The attackers came into the kitchen, held a gun to Ansie's head, grabbed a knife from her, held it to her side and told her to be quiet. One of the men threatened that he had killed before and would do it again. The robbers had tied her up and took her to a room in the house, and then brought Mpila in as well. Ansie heard her frail 84-year-old mother enter the house, she could hear her struggling as they man-handled her and then they just threw her into the room they were in. She had to go and pick her up off the floor. The attackers told Ansie they would cut off her fingers one by one if she did not tell them where the safe was. Ansie said they were in the room for half an hour before Hendrik arrived back from working on the farm. They were waiting for him. Ansie heard the door open and then she heard them beating her husband. They held a gun to his head. Hendrik had a gun on him, which they ripped off him. They were so brutal that they ripped his pants in the process. Ansie said Hendrik went to the safe and luckily found the key to open it.
